Mouroe Advertiser. Much has been said by the press of the State in reference to the course adopted by the Legislature in leasing out the convicts, to do railroad and farm work. In a number of cases the Legislature has been condemned for pursuing this policy. We desire simply to put on record the result of our observation. contract for grading the road from Forsyth to Indian Spring, and employ about fifty hands in doing the work. This is only a partiant of their force—they having lessed a target number and have contracts for building the mineral and their force—they having lessed a target number and have contracts for building rating at a filter to the first and the springs do in different and the contracts for building and the springs do in different and the springs do in the ing railroads in different sections of the

In working the force on the Nutting Turnpike the number of guards is small, yet sheet their arrival in Monroe county not one creapa has been made. The work is being ddigntly, faithfully done. The work is being ddigntly, faithfully done. The convicts are times goed control, and we have yet to hear of any of jections from the people glong the line of work, against the neighborhood of this force. They apprehend no danger to themselves or their property. We are of opinion that the case with which the conwicks sent here are managed, is due to the unfer new and inexperienced guards are employed, it is but natural that some diffi-culties will be had at first in preventing escape. As soon as this difficulty is when the larger class of the criminals sent there are negroes who could not learn the trades usually taught there. The Legislature, then, must look in some other direction for the employment of this force. Until some better plan is suggested, they can only lease them to contractors and farmers. We have doubtful if any octor plan can be urged. The convicts are peculiarly fit for farm inher, in having been mostly trained to this

We give the prescription for what it may be worth: "Boil poke root and new milk, equal parts, and give it to the patient until it produces sleep." The above was used in one of the worst stages and proved effective, when science and medicine speech I heard was altogether too funny to be enjoyed alone. The waiters here are models of solemn propriety. You would never dream of the drollery they conceal under such demure faces, or fancy that they treasuring up funds of comical "notes" for clearne hours. The dittle "aside" which came to my ears opened my eyes. There entered the droller of the dining room a fat, pompous be dividual, who putted and strutted along to his place with such an air of the Grand Mogul about him as to attract universal attention.
